MISSION STATEMENT

Champion for business and advocate for community

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Chamber of Commerce of Cape Coral, Inc., herein referred to as "(Chamber)".

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES

The Chamber is organized for the purpose of advancing the commercial, industrial, civic, and general interests of its members and the community of Cape Coral and its trade area.

ARTICLE III - LIMITATIONS OF METHOD

Sec. 1 Non-Profit Restrictions

The Chamber shall be nonpartisan and nonsectarian and shall take no part in or lend its influence or facilities, either directly or indirectly to the nomination, election, or appointment of any candidate for office in city, county, state or nation.

Sec. 2 Legal Compliance

The Chamber shall observe all local, state and federal laws, which apply to a nonprofit organization, as defined in Section 501 (C) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 3. Antitrust Policy Statement

The Chamber is organized for the purpose stated above and is not intended to and may not play any role in the competitive decisions of its members or their employees, or in any way restrict the competition of the business community, provided this shall not restrict the professional activities in compliance with the code of ethics and conduct.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Sec. 1 Qualifications

Any individual, association, business organization, sole owner or estate interested in the civic and economic well-being of the community of Cape Coral, who desires to preserve and promote the objectives of the Chamber shall be eligible to apply for membership.

Sec. 1a Membership Representatives

Any firm, association, business organization or estate may designate an individual, who the holder desires to exercise the privileges of membership covered by its subscription and shall have the right to change its membership representative upon written notice.

Sec. 1b. Honorary Membership

The Board of Directors, by majority vote, may confer or revoke an honorary membership. This membership shall include all the privileges of Active Membership. Honorary Membership shall be exempt from paying dues.

Sec. 1c. Membership Transferability

Membership is non-transferable. A transfer is deemed to occur either when a membership is sold, assigned or otherwise conveyed, or when there is substantial change (i.e. 50% or more) in the ownership of a member entity.

Sec. 2. Dues

Membership dues shall be at such rate or rates, schedule or formula as may be from time to time prescribed by the Board of Directors, payable annually on anniversary date of chamber membership.

Sec. 3. Membership Procedures

Applications for membership shall be made in writing to the Chamber and the application shall be regarded as a guarantee on the part of the applicant of his interest in and sympathy with the purpose of the Chamber and or his adherence if elected to office, to its Bylaws, regulations and rules.

Sec. 3a. Failure To Pay Dues

The President shall notify the Board of Directors of any member who fails to pay their dues within ninety (90) days of their annual renewal date. The Board of Directors is authorized to suspend the member from the privileges of membership until such dues are paid.

Sec. 3b. Member Resignations and Expulsions

Any member may resign from the Chamber upon written request to the Board of Directors; any member shall be expelled by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the Directors present for nonpayment of dues after ninety (90) days from the date due, unless otherwise extended for a good cause. Any member may be expelled by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors, at a regularly scheduled board meeting thereof, for conduct unbecoming a member or prejudicial to the aims or repute of the Chamber, after notice and opportunity for a hearing are afforded the member before the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Sec. 1. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Chamber shall be held during the first sixty (60) days of each fiscal year. The date, time and place shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and notice provided to each member at least ten (10) days but no more than sixty (60) days prior to such meetings.

Sec. 2. Special Meeting

Special meetings of The Chamber may be called at any time by any three (3) Directors. Notice of special meetings stating the purpose of such meeting shall be provided to each member prior to such meetings.

Sec.3 Agenda

An agenda for any meeting shall be provided with the notice for such meeting.

ARTICLE VI - BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES

Sec. 1. Directors

The Board of Directors shall be composed of at least twenty (20) Directors, but no more than twenty-five (25) total voting members; One seat being annually appointed as the Legal Advisor, one seat being annually appointed as the Financial Advisor, and one seat being occupied by a City of Cape Coral Senior Manager appointed by the Executive Committee. Directors shall serve a three (3) fiscal year term with a limit of no more than 3 terms until their successors are elected and have qualified. One director shall be the immediate past chairman for one year following the end of his term as chairman if his term as a director has expired. The President shall be a non-voting member of the Board of Directors. Any Council Chair shall serve as a non-voting member of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 2 Trustees

The Board of Directors can at any time with a majority vote accept members as Trustees. Trustees attend and participate in Board meetings but cannot vote or be counted to fulfill the need for a Board quorum. Trustees act as advisors and have a vested interest in the well-being of the Chamber. A Trustee term is one fiscal year and a Trustee can be appointed at any time during a fiscal period. At the end of a fiscal year a Trustee can be re-appointed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Up to ten (10) Trustees can be elected

Sec. 3 Method of Election.

Sec. 3a. Nomination Committee Appointment

At the regular January Board Meeting, the Chairman-elect of the Board shall appoint, subject to approval by the Board of Directors, a Nominating Committee of five (5) members of The Chamber. The Chairman-Elect shall head the Committee. These five (5) committee members, except for the Chairman-elect, shall not be seeking a Board or Trustee seat for the ballot year under consideration. Members of the Nomination Committee are selected at the discretion of the Chairman-Elect.

Sec. 3b. Nomination Committee Duties

Throughout the year, as needed, members of the Nomination Committee shall meet to discuss potential candidates to fill vacant Director and Trustee seats. At least thirty days prior to the August board meeting the President shall announce at the General Membership meeting and publish in the Chamber publications, the number of vacancies for Directors and Trustees, the method for obtaining and submitting applications, and the Nomination Committee deadline for accepting applications. An applicant is qualified to apply if that person, or the member company which that person represents, is a member in good standing of the Chamber. No member who is immediately related to a chamber staff member is eligible to serve on the board due to the possible perception of conflict of interest. Immediately related is defined as spouse, significant other, brother or sister, father or mother, son or daughter. Submission of an application is the applicant's agreement to serve if elected.

Sec. 3c. Election Process - Directors

Prior to the August Board of Directors meeting, the Nomination Committee shall present to the President a ballot containing the names of all qualified candidates who have applied for election. The Nomination Committee shall indicate by a mark next to a candidate's name whether it recommends that candidate for election. The Nomination Committee may also summarize each candidate's qualifications and accomplishments on the ballot. The President shall include a copy of each candidate's application in the information packet for each member of the Board of Directors prior to the Board of Directors meeting when the election is to take place. Upon receipt of the Nomination Committee's ballot at the August Board of Directors meeting, each Director may cast one vote per candidate for the number of candidates equal to the number of vacant Director positions. The votes shall be counted by the Nomination Committee after the Board of Directors meeting and the President shall publicize the results to the Chamber membership.

Sec. 3d Election Process – Trustees

Prior to the September Board of Directors meeting, the Nomination Committee shall present to the President a ballot containing the names of all qualified candidates (as previously defined) who have not been elected as Directors or who are only seeking election as a Trustee. The Nomination Committee shall indicate by a mark next to a candidate's name whether it recommends that candidate for election. The Nomination Committee may also summarize each candidate's qualifications and accomplishments in the information packet for each member of the Board of Directors prior to the Board of Directors meeting when the election is to take place.

Upon receipt of the ballot at the September Board of Directors meeting, each Director may cast one vote per candidate for the number of candidates equal to the number of vacant Trustee positions. The votes shall be counted by the Nomination Committee after the Board of Directors meeting and the President shall publicize the results to the Chamber membership.

Sec. 3e Run-off Election

In the event of a tie the run-off election shall be held within one week, without a further board meeting, by an electronic vote of the Board of Directors, and that ballot shall contain the same marks and summaries as the original ballot contained for these candidates. The run-off ballots shall be counted by the Nomination committee members and the President shall publish the results to the Chamber membership.

Sec. 3f Miscellaneous Election Provisions

No ballot submitted to the Board of Directors by the Nomination Committee shall be amended or modified by the Board, nor shall nominations from the floor or write-in candidates be accepted. Cumulative voting for Directors or Trustees is prohibited. No proxy vote shall be accepted. All ballots are confidential.

Sec. 4. Board Meeting Procedure

Meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairman of the Board or by any two (2) members of the Board. Notice (including the purpose of the meeting) shall be provided to each Director, Trustee, and Chairman Emeritus at least one (1) day prior to said meeting. A majority of Directors shall constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors Meeting. No proxy voting shall be considered.

Sec. 5. Terms

All newly elected Directors and Trustees shall be seated at the regular January Board meeting and shall serve as participating members for the term for which they are elected and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified or until earlier resignation, removal or death.

Sec. 6. Absences

A Director or Trustee who shall have two (2) unexcused absences from the regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors in a calendar year may be removed from membership of the Board, by a majority vote of the Board. Any Director or Trustee after having one (1) unexcused absences in a calendar year shall receive a written notice that (1) meetings have been missed with a reminder of the attendance policy. A Director or Trustee who communicates a good faith excuse to the President will be granted an excused absence. The Executive Board of Directors may review a Directors or Trustees excused absences after two (2) have occurred in a calendar year and recommend action to the Board of Directors.

Section 6a. Leave of Absence

A Director or Trustee may request a leave of absence by submitting a letter of request to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors at their next regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors shall by motion vote to approve or disapprove the request.

Sec. 7. Removal

Any Director or Trustee may be removed without cause, by a vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special board of directors meeting providing there is a quorum present.

Sec. 8. Vacancies

Vacancies on the Board of Directors or among the officers shall be filled by the Board of Directors by a majority ballot vote after recommendations of the Nomination Committee, the staff and an interview of candidate(s) by the Nomination Committee or Board of Directors. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next election of Directors.

Sec. 9. Duties

The government and policy-making responsibilities of the Chamber shall be vested in the Board of Directors, which shall control its property, be responsible for its finances, and direct its affairs. The Board of Directors is responsible for establishing procedure and formulating policy of the organization. They are also responsible for adopting all policies of the organization. These policies shall be maintained in a Policy Manual, to be reviewed annually and revised as necessary. They are responsible for creation of the Business Plan annually. Each Director and Trustee shall be a member of at least one committee or task force during each fiscal year.

Sec. 10. Staff

The Board of Directors shall employ a President and shall fix the salary and other considerations of employment. Prior to each fiscal year the Executive Board of Directors shall evaluate the President and make a recommendation to the Board of Directors for appropriate action within the parameters of the annual budget.

Sec. 11. Indemnification

The Chamber may, with the approval of the Board of Directors, provide for indemnification of its Directors, Officers, employees, agents and others as provide by law, against liabilities, expenses and other amounts allowed by law and actually and reasonably incurred, when the Board determines that the party to be indemnified has acted in good faith and in a manner the party reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Chamber, and when, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the party had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The decision of the Board of Directors whether or not to indemnify a person shall be made in the manner required by law.

Sec. 12 Code of Conduct

Each Board Member, Trustee and Chairman Emeritus shall annually complete and return the Chamber's Code of Ethics and Conduct agreement.

ARTICLE VII - OFFICERS

Sec.1. Election

The Board of Directors shall hold an organizational meeting each. At this meeting the Board shall confirm the incoming Executive Committee members. All officers shall serve for a term of one (1) year or until their successors assume the duties of office and they shall be voting members of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 2. Chairman

The Chairman of the Board shall serve as the chief elected officer of the Chamber and shall preside at all meetings of the membership, Board of Directors and Executive Committee. The Chairman of the Board shall, with the advice and counsel of the President, assign chairmen to divisional or departmental responsibility, subject to Board of Directors approval.

Sec. 3. Chairman-Elect

The Chairman-Elect shall exercise the powers and authority and perform the duties of the Chairman of the Board in the absence or disability of the Chairman of the Board. The Chairman-Elect shall also serve as head of the Business Plan Committee of the Chamber. As such the Chairman-Elect and Committee will be responsible for determining that the program activities of the Chamber are directed toward achieving the mission and objectives of the Chamber.

Sec. 4. Immediate Past Chairman
